

CAMP SPRINGS INITIATIVE
October 26, 2009
MINUTES

A meeting of the Board of the Camp Springs Initiative was held October 26, 2009 at the Camp Springs Winery. Attending were Bill and Carolyn Allender, Harriet Arrasmith, Betty Daniels, Lonnie Enzweiler, Mike Enzweiler, Nancy Enzweiler, Phillip Garber, Chuck Heilman, Bill Runion, Don Wiedeman and Anna Zinkhon.

Carolyn Allender called the meeting to order and thanked Lonnie for hosting.

Secretary's Report: The minutes were read and accepted as read. Motion: Phillip Garber, second: Harriet Arrasmith.

Treasurer's Report: New balance is $135.12. Money from the sale of the Northern Kentucky Heritage is forthcoming. The magazine will be left in local businesses for sale.

Old Business: The Herbst Tour was discussed. Pictures from this year could go to the website and towards publicity for next year. Don Wiedeman also announced that Kevin Kelly is the Kentucky Enquirer reporter assigned to Campbell County. Next year's Herbst Tour is October 17.

Camp Springs Day was discussed at length. CSI spent around $400 on the event and it drew few community members. Ideas included

- Possible Location - Firehouse
- Attach it to an existing event, f.e. Memorial Day
- Include "Community Meeting" in the name
- Invite presenters, f.e. politicians in an election year, Mrs. Beshear
- Make it a chili cook-off
- Use it to advertise community events

New Business: The following slate of officers was approved by acclamation. Motion: Phillip Garber, second: Chuck Heilman.

President - Bill Allender

Secretary - Nancy Enzweiler

Vice President - Harriet Arrasmith

Treasurer - Lonnie Enzweiler

Trails: Don has requested a contract extension for 1 year. Anna has contacted and continues to contact property owners. Carolyn has a list of those who attended the recent trails meeting.

The next meeting will be held on November 19 at 7 p.m. at Misty Ridge Farm.

Respectfully submitted, Nancy Enzweiler, Secretary
