Thanks to Our Volunteers

Good spirits prevailed for the group of CSI and local high school volunteers that gathered on April 30 to clean up seven miles of roads in Camp Springs. CSI had much-appreciated help from student and parent volunteers from Bishop Brossart High School and Campbell County High School. The group collected fifteen bags of trash from the roadsides. CSI is committed to periodic clean-ups in our area. If you are interested in helping, please mark Saturday, October 8, on your calendar. Volunteers will meet at the Camp Springs Bed and Breakfast at 10 a.m. that morning to begin the fall clean-up. Thanks also to Whitey Heeb and Ellis Harvey for their help in maintaining and beautifying the Camp Springs signs on Four Mile Road.
