While the full list of acceptable materials may vary slightly in some locations, residents can typically recycle the following:

- Glass Bottles & Jars (all colors)
- Metal Cans: Aluminum cans, steel cans and lids, empty aerosol cans with the lids and tips removed
- Plastic Bottles (empty, crush, reattach lid): Bottles and jugs that have a small mouth and wider base, such as milk jugs, soda bottles, laundry detergent bottles, water bottles, shampoo bottles and contact solution bottles
- Paper: newspaper, magazines, cardboard, mixed office paper and envelopes, paperboard (cereal boxes), pizza boxes free of food debris and grease, telephone books and catalogs
- Cartons: food and beverage cartons, such as milk, juice, soup, wine, broth and other cartons.

Recycling Tips

- Empty all bottles, jugs and cans
- No need to remove labels
- For plastic bottles, empty, crush and reattach lids
- For cartons, remove plastic caps and straws
- NEVER place medical sharps or needles in the recycling
- DON'T use plastic bags; put items for recycling directly into the bins

NOT for Recycling

Sewer Update

News from unofficial sources suggests that the force-main sewer line that was proposed to go through Camp Springs has been cancelled. Another more cost-efficient and less disruptive solution has apparently been found. Preserve and Protect Camp Springs is still in need of funds to cover ongoing legal costs. Please send donations (checks made out to Preserve and Protect Camp Springs) to Anna Zinkhon at 5210 Owl Creek Road Camp Spring, Ky. 41059 or drop donation off at Wesbanco (formerly United Bank of Kentucky) in Highland Heights.

Thanks to all who battled the sewer line so persistently, especially to Anna Zinkhon, who so ably led the fight.

Neltner Small Batch Creates Mural

In addition to admiring outdoor murals and product logos, tri-state residents can now view artwork by Neltner Small Batch, owned by Keith Neltner of Camp Springs, in Cincinnati's Union Terminal. The 63-foot long mural, which echoes the style of a graphic novel, welcomes visitors to the lobby of the Nancy & David Wolf Holocaust and Humanity Center. The mural tells dramatic and true stories of survival in hopes of educating and inspiring viewers. More information is available at <https://www.bizjournals.com/cincinnati/news/2019/02/08/depiction-of-local-holocaust-survivors-anemotional.html>.
